Out of Focus

FUORI FUOCO

1914-1918. The story of a family told by a bright young girl. Talking about war from the viewpoint of one who doesn't make it

"When war broke out we were all pleased". Jolanda known as Jole was already working at the spinning-wheel at the age of thirteen during the summer of 1914. It didn't take her long to understand and suffer for the consequences of a conflict that sends the men away and leaves the women alone. Separated from her mother, traumatised by the bombings, she and her sister will roam the countryside looking for a grandmother that they had never met before. Through the voice of Jole – a penetrating, vivid first person narrator – their experiences are those of all the women who stay out of the line of fire, far from the front, blurred, almost invisible, while History proceeds, ruthlessly. Thirteen narrated images, like photos missing from a family album, punctuate a narration based on diaries, testimonies, reports and documents.

Carlo Collodi & Lorenzo Mattotti The Adventures of Pinocchio

The most beloved classic of Italian children's literature illustrated by one of the most important contemporary artists.

Lorenzo Mattotti has been working for ages around one of the most famous characters of world literature: Pinocchio. The tale of the wooden puppet who comes alive and must face many difficulties in order to become a real boy seems to find in the illustrator's work an ideal mirror. What comes from this exceptional encounter is an artist's book that breathes both with the ambiguous and phantasmagorical spirit and aim of Collodi and with Mattotti's – or rather Mattotti's Collodi's – vision.

CARLO COLLODI

(1826-1890), pen name of Carlo Lorenzini, was the author of many books for children, but his fame is bound to his masterpiece, The Adventures of Pinocchio, unanimously regarded as one of the most important novels of 19th century Italian literature.
